Company profile

Hello! We are Yangxing, a manufacturer with 27 years of experience in producing personal care products. We specialize in manufacturing cotton swab products. Unlike general enterprises, we are committed to building a different service system since 2023. We not only produce products, but also provide product design, R&D and post promotion program services. We want to provide one-stop service. And to assist customers in the after-sales sales process. The two production departments cover a total area of 2,500 square meters and are mainly sold to the Asian market, European and American market, and Middle East market. The average annual production value is 4 million dollars.
